

Headteacher Awards
20 March-26 March 2026

Chelsea T	for working so hard at her trumpet and gaining a High Distinction in her Grade 5 exam.
Peaches C	for persistence and determination when working on her targets in English.
Ben F	for an outstanding piece of work related to our school mottos: love learning, be kind and go out into the world to do good.
Elodie G	for determination and perseverance in English and for epitomising our learning powers.
Francesca G	for crafting a scholarly analysis of a Roald Dahl short story.
Esmee M	for making links between our school mottos and the precepts from Mother Theresa and the Dalai Lama.
Luay A-N	for doing an excellent job when interviewing the Year 8 bakers in our Great British Bake Off.
Ela B	for doing an excellent job when interviewing the Year 8 bakers in our Great British Bake Off.
Emeka O	for doing an excellent job when interviewing the Year 8 bakers in our Great British Bake Off.
Tilly R-C	for doing an excellent job when interviewing the Year 8 bakers in our Great British Bake Off.
Elliott S	for doing an excellent job when interviewing the Year 8 bakers in our Great British Bake Off.
William B	for a highly creative vanilla and rose cake and for creating a heavenly buttercream!
Lucas B	{for teaching a superb lesson on bridges. {for resilience and adaptability when half of his Scottish baked raspberry cheesecake ended up on the floor.

Headteacher Awards
20 March-26 March 2026

Freddie B	{for teaching a fantastic lesson on Formula One. {for complete independence whilst making his Victoria sponge cake.
Vivian B	{for teaching an excellent lesson on animals. {for independence in making her red velvet sponge and adaptability when having to improvise with the frosting. {for independence in making her red velvet sponge and adaptability when having to improvise with the frosting.
Max B	for the crafting the most aesthetically pleasing and imaginative blackberry and dark chocolate cake.
Ashley C	{for teaching a fantastic lesson on natural disasters. {for complete independence whilst making her lemon drizzle cake.
Bertie C	for excellence in crafting an orange roll cake and creativity with the milk/dark chocolate roses.
William E	{for teaching a fantastic lesson on Formula One. {for being adventurous when making Welsh cakes and sharing his heritage with the class.
Beau H	{for teaching a very well researched and fascinating lesson on Immunology. {for methodical planning and generosity when sharing his ingredients with others.
Miri H	for planning and crafting a beautiful vanilla cake with coconut buttercream.
Lewis M	for epitomising our LPW learning powers of resilience and perseverance. When his first cake flopped, Lewis started again and went on to be a runner up in the competition.
Nicholas M	{for teaching a brilliant lesson on the brain. {for crafting a superb Guinness cake and linking its theme to St Patrick's Day.