The School

Lancing College Preparatory School at Worthing (LPW) is situated in approximately two acres of grounds in Broadwater, an area north of Worthing. The school is sited in a Grade II listed building with the oldest part of the building dating back some five hundred years. The Manor of Broadwater is mentioned in the Domesday Book.

Lancing Prep Worthing is one of the Lancing College family of schools, complementing Lancing's prep schools in Hove and in Bury; together they cement the Lancing position as a leading senior school, with a trio of prep schools spreading along the coast from Brighton to Chichester and northwards into the South Downs.

Lancing Prep Worthing is a vibrant and nurturing independent school that offers a dynamic and enriching educational experience for children aged 2 to 13 years. Rooted in the values of kindness, curiosity, and ambition, the school fosters a culture where every child is known, supported, and inspired to thrive both academically and personally.

In May 2025, LPW was inspected under the Independent Schools Inspectorate's (ISI) new framework, which came into effect from September 2023. The school is proud to have received a highly successful outcome which affirmed the quality of the educational provision and pastoral care. In addition, LPW was named a Finalist for The Debrett's Education Award for Outstanding Pastoral Care, it received a Highly Commended Award for Best Learning Support in the Muddy Stiletto's Best School Awards and was shortlisted for Small Independent School of the Year in 2025.

The school combines high academic standards with a broad co-curricular programme. The dedicated staff work collaboratively to create a warm, inclusive environment where pupils are encouraged to explore their passions, develop resilience, and grow into confident, compassionate individuals.
