

Headteacher Awards
27 March-23 April 2026

Otto D	for imaginatively writing a persuasive letter of application to join Howard Carter on the dig to find Tutankhamun's tomb in 1922.
Benjamin N	for imaginatively writing a persuasive letter of application to join Howard Carter on the dig to find Tutankhamun's tomb in 1922.
Jessica W	for raising money for charity by decorating pebbles and selling them. Going out into the World and doing good!
Leah B	for playing the piano beautifully in Eucharist.
Sofia S	for independently creating three beautiful and imaginative posters, as well as a large set of colourful flashcards, to engage enthusiastically with the next French topic on shopping for food and drinks.
Charlie B	for independently and enthusiastically practising French outside of school by completing several pages of a French activity book.
Chelsea T	{for crafting a fantastic meal based on WW2 rationing, and also researching (and building!) a WW2 plane. {for her outstanding research on Jeanne Baret, combining facts, data and critical thinking, with an excellent and imaginative presentation.
Autumn S	for her outstanding poster on Sophie Germain featuring beautiful drawings, a calligraphic title and a rich variety of facts presented like a story, making it a pleasure to read and admire.
Peaches C	for enthusiasm and leadership in supporting Year 2's learning, showing creativity and confidence while inspiring younger learners.
Elodie G	for the outstanding completion of assessment follow-up tasks, alongside excellent research on Sophie Germain.
Pippa W	for her outstanding poster on the French mathematician Sophie Germain, combining carefully chosen facts with an imaginative presentation inspired by her work, the Eiffel Tower and the colours of the French flag.

Headteacher Awards
27 March-23 April 2026

William B	for enthusiasm and leadership in supporting Year 2's learning, showing creativity and confidence while inspiring younger learners.
Freddie B	for enthusiasm and leadership in supporting Year 2's learning, showing creativity and confidence while inspiring younger learners.
Vivian B	for enthusiasm and leadership in supporting Year 2's learning, showing creativity and confidence while inspiring younger learners.
Bertie C	for enthusiasm and leadership in supporting Year 2's learning, showing creativity and confidence while inspiring younger learners.