

Headteacher Awards

24 April-30 April 2026

Emily A	{for visiting the British Museum over Easter to find out more about Ancient Egypt. {for mastering all of her times tables like a true mathematician!
Hugo H	for his fantastic progress and focus in Maths!
Lilah MMDC	for visiting Osborne House over Easter and for presenting pictures and information of what she saw.
Jacob M	for mastering all of his times tables like a true mathematician!
Aria P-T	for her fantastic focus and sentence writing in English.
Delilah P	for mastering all of her times tables like a true mathematician!
Pasha S-N	for mastering all of his times tables like a true mathematician!
Amélie G	{for joining Orchestra and playing brilliantly in the first rehearsal of term. {for her amazing start in French!
Asher G	for his amazing and imaginative story 'Le poulet et le ver de compagnie'.
Trixie G	for her rich and detailed research on La Loire, showing excellent collaboration with Matilda, resourcefulness in using AI to translate facts into French, and a very methodical presentation.
Zara H	for her excellent research on La Loire, clearly organised with a helpful contents page and well chosen illustrations. A very interesting piece of work.
Penelope L	for her amazing research on la Garonne, with a wide range of facts, a thoughtfully chosen poem, and meaningful links between her learning and her personal interests that show curiosity, open mindedness and a genuine love of learning.
Frances M	for her detailed research on La Loire, presented in an imaginative and delightful way.

Headteacher Awards

24 April-30 April 2026

Jessica W	for two outstanding pieces of homework: a wonderfully imaginative story with a powerful and inspiring moral, showing excellent planning, resourcefulness and beautiful illustrations; and a stunning poster on La Loire, featuring a wide range of facts presented in a clear, methodical and beautifully illustrated way.
Florence W	for an outstanding poster on La Loire, with well organised facts and a methodical, imaginative presentation that goes beyond expectations.
Sully B	for showing kindness, helpfulness and an enthusiastic collaborative spirit in French.
Mae C	for showing kindness, helpfulness and an enthusiastic collaborative spirit in French.
Noah G	for his outstanding and in depth research on Marinette Cueco and the Loire River, with carefully researched facts, clear organisation and a methodical presentation.
Otis K	for his great and enthusiastic start in French and for being kind and helpful towards another pupil during a French lesson this week.
Oscar K	for modelling kindness and helpfulness towards another pupil during a French lesson this week, and for your research on la Garonne.
Margo L	for her amazing and in depth research on La Loire, meeting all success criteria through a methodical, imaginative and highly inquisitive approach.
Toby Q	for his amazing start in French, especially on Duolingo!
Cleo S	for showing kindness, helpfulness and an enthusiastic collaborative spirit in French.

Headteacher Awards

24 April-30 April 2026

Matilda W	for her rich and detailed research on La Loire, showing excellent collaboration with Beatrix, resourcefulness in using AI to translate facts into French and a very methodical presentation.
Maisie C	for her two beautifully illustrated posters on Jeanne Baret and Luce Turnier, giving a clear and engaging overview of these two remarkable women.
Clemmy D	for his excellent research on Jeanne Baret and Luce Turnier, with a wide range of facts presented in a clear and methodical way.
Rosie E	for showing incredible kindness at a time when someone needed it.
Emily E	for her beautiful posters on Jeanne Baret and Luce Turnier, combining carefully chosen and customised visuals with a wide range of facts presented in a clear and methodical way.
Harry A	for outstanding research and an animated Canva presentation on Jeanne Baret, featuring a rich range of facts and an imaginative design. His persistence, focus and love of learning shone through.
Fatima C	for crafting an excellent poster on Jeanne Baret, showing great creativity, accurate facts and impressive attention to detail.
Chloe R	for completing some outstanding homework on bouncy eggs over the Easter break.
Chelsea T	for completing some outstanding homework over the Easter break on adaptations of rabbits.
Ela B	for a highly imaginative Da Vinci'esque invention: Meta glasses for sports training.

Headteacher Awards

24 April-30 April 2026

Isabella C	{for showing exceptional focus and independent learning in preparing a presentation in Music. {for her excellent research on Sophie Germain, with many facts clearly organised and a wide range of French vocabulary used.
Cody M	for his excellent research on Sophie Germain, written entirely in French and presented imaginatively, with clear facts, a quote, and mathematical equations that link to his French mathematician's work.
Emeka O	for his excellent research and presentation on Sophie Germain, with well organised and clearly linked facts. His full translation from English into French demonstrates persistence, inquisitiveness and a methodical approach.
Elliott S	for a highly imaginative Da Vinci'esque invention: waterproof casts for broken bones.
Otilie S	for her excellent research and presentation on Sophie Germain, with a wide range of facts that are methodically organised and clearly linked.
Autumn S	for a highly imaginative Da Vinci'esque invention: an animal version of google translate.
Emily T	for her excellent research on Sophie Germain, with clear facts methodically organised and a well chosen illustration.
Ben F	for a highly imaginative Da Vinci'esque invention: VAR embedded goalposts.
Elodie G	for a highly imaginative Da Vinci'esque invention: smart spoon for healthy eating.
Francesca G	for her outstanding research on Sophie Germain, written entirely in French with a clear English translation, presented creatively and using bold text effectively to highlight new vocabulary.

Headteacher Awards

24 April-30 April 2026

Chima O	for her outstanding research on Sophie Germain and presentation, featuring well chosen facts, a quote, illustrations and French sentences that show excellent transfer of learning from the Autumn and Spring Terms.
Oscar W	for his great research and excellent presentation on Sophie Germain, with facts in both French and English, showing a high level of French.
Lucas B	for considerable focus in a composing task in Music and notable kindness to others at all times.
Max B	for an encyclopedic knowledge of James Bond books and films.
Ashley C	for planning and teaching an excellent Art lesson to her peers.
Bertie C	for loving learning and demonstrating dedication to his studies in English and for an outstanding piece of descriptive writing.
William E	for teaching an outstanding lesson related to the advancement of sport due to technology.

