

Headteacher Awards

08-14 May 2026

Emily A	for independently capitalising on her spare time to produce a marvellous piece of research about Queen Victoria that she presented beautifully to 3S.
Marigold P	for working hard and with great determination to gain her French Language Badge as part of her Brownie group.
Sienna S	for completing extra French tasks, demonstrating a genuine love of learning.
Oscar We	for being open-minded and inquisitive by learning Japanese on Duolingo and making sushi last week to further explore Japanese culture.
Bruno B-A	for crafting fantastic methodical and imaginative flashcards on French colours, demonstrating excellent understanding of key concepts such as agreement and word order in French sentences.
Amélie G	for crafting excellent, detailed flashcards on French colours, and for independently extending her learning by creating a brilliant poster featuring nineteen beautifully hand drawn and labelled school items in French.
Primrose G	for creating an imaginative and methodical poster on 'les couleurs', demonstrating excellent understanding of the grammar concepts linked to these French adjectives.
Emmie L	for being a truly outstanding and enthusiastic ambassador for the MFL Department during our Open Morning and for crafting a wonderful mini book on French colours.
Penelope L	for producing outstanding homework in French, including a creative and personal story featuring Le Chat Botté and la coccinelle taches, and a beautifully methodical and imaginative poster on les couleurs.
Frances M	for her very good Canva presentation demonstrating her understanding of the video on 'les couleurs' and for showing persistence in improving her work to reach an excellent standard.

Headteacher Awards

08-14 May 2026

Toby S	for his outstanding notes on the video 'Les couleurs', showing a deep understanding of its content and an excellent ability to select and organise information independently.
Jacob S-Y	for crafting an imaginative and beautifully presented booklet on 'les couleurs', demonstrating persistence and a genuine love of learning.
Jasper S	for creating an outstanding and exemplary French poster, now used as a model resource in the French room.
Jessica W	for creating an exceptionally beautiful and imaginative poster on 'les couleurs', demonstrating outstanding understanding and accuracy.
Florence W	for creating a beautiful and highly methodical poster on 'les couleurs', demonstrating a clear and accurate understanding of key grammar concepts.
Sully B	for being a truly outstanding and enthusiastic ambassador for the MFL Department during our Open Morning.
Miles C	for producing an excellent piece of French homework on 'les couleurs', showing accurate understanding and a clear, imaginative and methodical presentation.
Magnus D	for writing an extraordinary story in French, showing great resourcefulness and persistence.
Otis O	for creating a methodical and beautifully presented piece of work on French colours, demonstrating a very good understanding of this topic.
Toby Q	for crafting a stunning poster on colours in French, demonstrating great persistence and imagination.
Sofia S	for being a truly outstanding and enthusiastic ambassador for the MFL Department during our Open Morning.
Cody M	for excellent progress in Choir and especially sustaining the high notes so well in 'Over the Rainbow'.

Headteacher Awards
08-14 May 2026

Cameron B	for his fantastic progress on Duolingo since the beginning of the Summer Term.
Peaches C	for her outstanding progress on Duolingo and for being consistently persistent and dedicated week after week.
Francesca G	for her outstanding and consistent progress on Duolingo, and for being a truly outstanding and enthusiastic ambassador for the MFL Department during our Open Morning.
Hunter L	for an outstanding piece of optional imaginative writing.
Chima O	for her great progress on Duolingo and for being consistently persistent term after term.
Lucas B	for his excellent and consistent progress on Duolingo.
Max B	for his stunning and consistent progress on Duolingo.
Beau H	for being a truly outstanding and enthusiastic ambassador for the MFL Department during our Open Morning.