

Headteacher Awards

23 September-29 September 2026

Sienna H	Reception	for showing fantastic effort and enthusiasm in phonics this week.
Maya M	Reception	for fantastic engagement during learning times and always showing kindness and care towards others.
Ted B-T	Year 1	for his superb behaviour and focus on his writing.
Rory D	Year 1	for his fantastic caption writing of 'Little Red Riding Hood'.
Bobby B	Year 2	for his focussed effort in English over the past couple of weeks.
Ella S	Year 5	for always working well collaboratively with a positive attitude.
Chloe B	Year 6	for being an outstanding imaginative and inquisitive learner in French, creating an excellent Marie Curie poster, an engaging presentation on Lac d'Annecy, and using authentic French resources to develop new vocabulary.
Leah B	Year 6	for being inquisitive and open-minded by baking delicious chocolate souffles, and for delving deeper into French grammar.
Isabella B	Year 6	for showing great creativity and enthusiasm in French through baking a delicious galette des rois, filming the process and creating excellent grammar and vocabulary revision cards to support her learning.
Sully B	Year 6	for being an inquisitive learner, researching pets in France and the Cannes film festival, and showing a keen interest in French culture beyond the classroom.

Follow us on socials

Headteacher Awards

23 September-29 September 2026

Bruno B-A	Year 6	for his superb poster fact files about crêpes salées (galettes de sarrasin) and his flashcards on the numbers 1 to 35, including the numeral, the number written out in French and the phonetic transcription.
Magnus D	Year 6	for his colourful and carefully presented work on his holidays in France, highlighting Carcassonne and the Tour de France.
Amélie G	Year 6	for her outstanding 11-slide French quiz covering a wide range of topics, and her imaginative French-English vocabulary wheel in the colours of the French flag, focusing on school equipment.
Primrose G	Year 6	for baking delicious crêpes and for being a brilliant linking learner by crafting beautiful flashcards from some words she learnt on Duolingo.
Noah G	Year 6	for his imaginative board game about school items, with very creative rules that make the game so interesting, and for his brilliant fact sheet about French food and famous French chefs.
Hattie K	Year 6	for her outstanding presentation on French gastronomy displaying so many learning powers.
Amina K	Year 6	for her creative résumé of her holidays in France, and for loving learning French and being open-minded by baking chocolatines (pains au chocolat) at home.
Oscar K	Year 6	for his excellent research and presentation of Zinedine Zidane.
Emmie L	Year 6	for baking delicious crêpes with Pen and Margo and for making an impressive video about the process, in French.

Follow us on socials

Headteacher Awards

23 September-29 September 2026

Margo L	Year 6	for baking delicious crêpes with Pen and Emmie and for making an impressive video about the process, in French.
Penelope L	Year 6	for baking delicious crêpes with Margo and Emmie and for making an impressive video about the process, in French.
Tobias Q	Year 6	for loving learning French by crafting a stunning lapbook on France and French culture and an A3 poster on the French language displaying nearly all the LPW learning powers.
Toby S	Year 6	for baking a delicious galette des rois aux pommes and for making a great and funny PowerPoint linking la galette and Daft Punk.
Jacob S-Y	Year 6	for delving deeper in the French gastronomy and for imaginatively presenting his findings both in French and in English.
Jasper S	Year 6	for his wonderful presentation of his holidays in Brittany showing several cultural aspects of the region of France and for his beautiful hand-drawn poster about school equipment, carefully presented and accurately labelled in French.
Matilda W	Year 6	for her imaginative and rich presentation on the French crêpes and for crafting 5 copies of an amazing creative board game on 'les animaux'.
Jessica W	Year 6	for crafting a wonderful poster on Nice carnival and illustrated flashcards to review the months of the year, in French.
Dhriti A	Year 7	for an imaginative and creative response to a location description: creating shoes!

Follow us on socials

Headteacher Awards
23 September-29 September 2026

Charlie B	Year 7	for an imaginative and creative response to a location description: a 3D representation with quotes.
Hamish B	Year 7	for an imaginative and creative response to a location description: a Lego masterpiece.
Emiley C	Year 7	for an imaginative and creative response to a location description: a wonderful cardboard model.
Isla L	Year 7	for an imaginative and creative response to a location description: baking a cake with location decorations.
Rufus P	Year 7	for an imaginative and creative response to a location description: creating an on-line world and powerpoint.
Rowan T-R	Year 7	for an imaginative and creative response to a location description: an impressive model of a lizard with quotes.
Cameron B	Year 8	for responding with imagination and creativity to a Shakespearian Challenge: Witches Rap.
Ela B	Year 8	for her extensive summer work and her outstanding creative writing which shows her linguistic talent and is truly impressive.
Peaches C	Year 8	for responding with imagination and creativity to a Shakespearian Challenge: performance art.
Francesca G	Year 8	for being such a persistent and linking learner by entirely completing her French activity booklet.

Headteacher Awards
23 September-29 September 2026

Esmee M	Year 8	for responding with imagination and creativity to a Shakespearian Challenge: creating a collage or witch imagery.
Cody M	Year 8	for responding with imagination and creativity to a Shakespearian Challenge: composing an original piano accompaniment for Macbeth.
Elliott S	Year 8	for responding with imagination and creativity to a Shakespearian Challenge: Lino printing.
Ottillie S	Year 8	{for responding with imagination and creativity to a Shakespearian Challenge: crafting a witches cauldron. {for loving learning French by entirely completing her French activity booklet and for crafting an impressive quiz retrieval poster displaying nearly all the LPW learning powers.
Pippa W	Year 8	for responding with imagination and creativity to a Shakespearian Challenge: crafting a stylish visual image of the witches.