Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, Lancing College encourages an informal resolution in the first instance. This can be undertaken by raising a complaint in writing to the Head of Centre..

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to Dr John Herbert, DH.. Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within five calendar days..

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must complete the Complaints and appeals form on the VLE..

How a formal complaint is investigated

The Head of Centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the Senior Management Team to investigate the complaint and report the findings and conclusion.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within three working weeks.

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must complete a further Complaint and Appeal Form from the VLE..

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within 5 calendar days..

The appeal will be referred to the Chair of Governors..

It will be the responsibility of the Chair of Governors to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.
